

It doesn't make sense to me to have element 1 morse code test for voice communication on HF bands, but you don't need to take the element 1 morse code test for voice communication on VHF/UHF bands. Please eliminate the element 1 morse code test as a mandatory test for voice communication. Make the element 1 morse code test optional for those who want to learn and operate CW mode. Thank you.